

Colored Banderole Postage Dues Postmarks

The Colored Banderole dues were issued in 1893. Over time, they gradually replaced existing stocks of the Black Banderole postage due stamps in Indochinese post offices.

5 centimes
Cochinchina

Laos

China

Colored Banderole Postage Dues Postmarks

With this issue, each postage due denomination was printed in a separate color. Presumably, the differing colors assisted postal clerks in identifying face values.

5 centimes
Annam

Colored Banderole Postage Dues Postmarks

As with the previous issue, France used perforated postage due stamps of the same design while imperforate versions were allotted to the colonies.

5 centimes
Annam

TOURANE

Tonkin

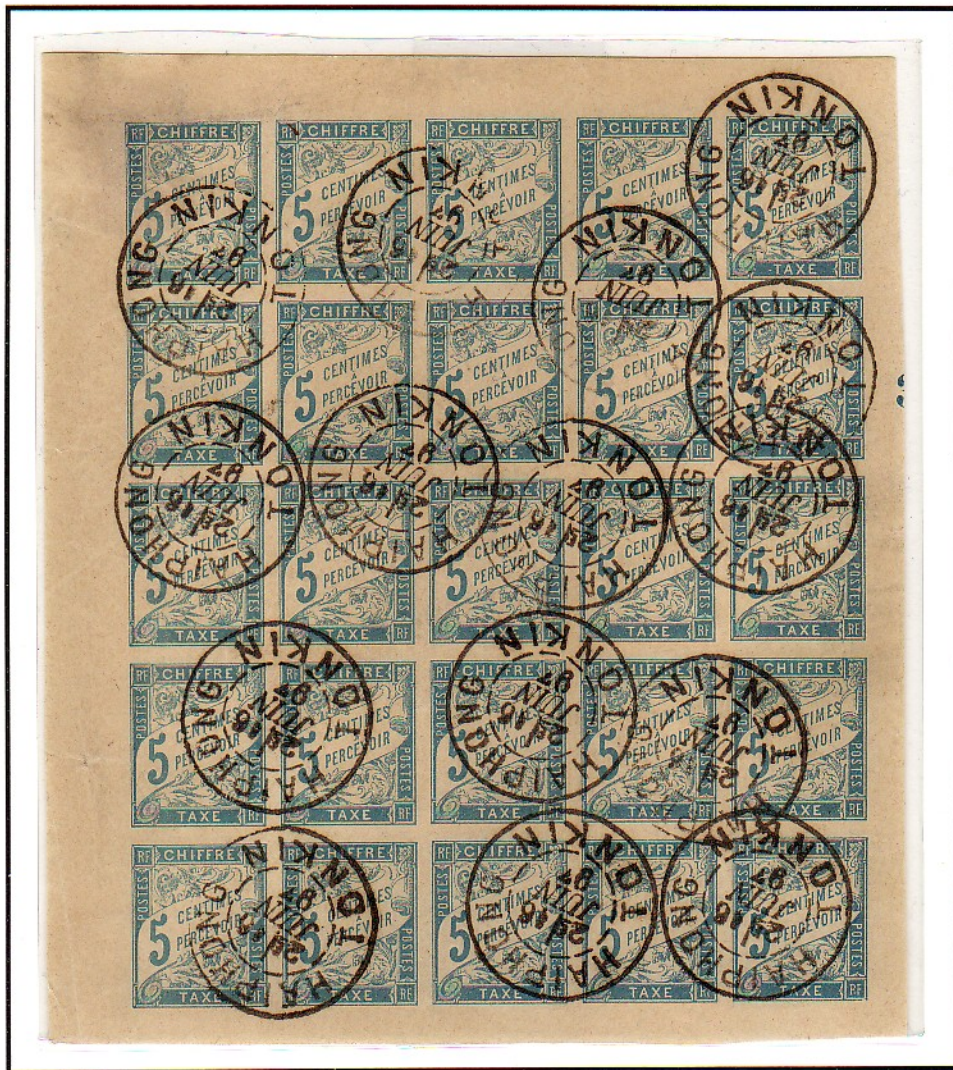

Colored Banderole Postage Dues Postmarks

5 centimes
Tonkin

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Postmarks

5 centimes
Tonkin

Colored Banderole Postage Dues Postmarks

10 centimes
Annam

Colored Banderole Postage Dues Postmarks

10 centimes
Annam

TOURANE

Cambodia

Laos

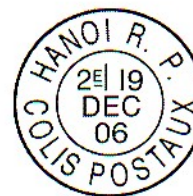

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Postmarks

10 centimes
Cochinchina

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Postmarks

10 centimes
Tonkin

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Postmarks

10 centimes
Tonkin

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Postmarks

15 centimes

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Postmarks

20 centimes

30 centimes

Colored Banderole Postage Dues Postmarks

30 centimes

50 centimes

Colored Banderole Postage Dues Postmarks

60 centimes

1 franc

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 5 centimes

A Thai postal card with a face value of 4 atts underpaid the postage for foreign delivery in 1906. The card was assessed 5 centimes postage due with the low value of the Colored Banderole series of postage due stamps.

POSTAL MARKINGS

BANGKOK * 2 * 6 4 1906

large "T" in triangle

SAIGON-CENTRAL COCHINCHINE 12 AVRIL 06

SAIGON-CENTRAL COCHINCHINE 13 AVRIL 06

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 5 centimes on a Postal Form as a Receipt

POSTES ET TÉLÉGRAPHES

Monsieur

Laurans

avocat

H.

(Tonkin)

Le

des Postes et des Télégraphes du bureau de

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 5 centimes

Although franked with a 5-centime stamp on the reverse, a local postcard was deemed to have insufficient postage. The recipient had to pay 10 centimes postage due.

POSTAL MARKINGS

"T" in triangle

LAOKAY TONKIN 13 SEPT 05

REVERSE

LAOKAY TONKIN 13 SEPT 05

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 5 centimes

In 1902, a sender in France posted a postcard to a soldier serving in Indochina. Since the message on the reverse exceeded the five-word limit for a reduced postage rate, the Saigon post office assessed postage due in the amount of 10 centimes (twice the shortfall amount).

POSTAL MARKINGS
BEUVAIS OISE 16-8 02
"T" in triangle
SAIGON-CENTRAL COCHINCHINE 17 SEPT 02

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 5 centimes

Small, unsealed envelopes with calling cards could be mailed at the reduced rate of 5 centimes. Here, the sender had failed to affix any postage. As a result, the mailing was charged 10 cents postage due (twice the unpaid amount).

POSTAL MARKINGS

SAIGON COCHINCHINE 28 JUIL 05

"T" in triangle

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 5 and 10 centimes

Rules regarding underpaid postage on letters applied equally to postcards. Sent from Hyderabad City in 1905, this postcard was charged 15 centimes postage due by virtue of rounding up to the next 5 centimes.

POSTAL MARKINGS

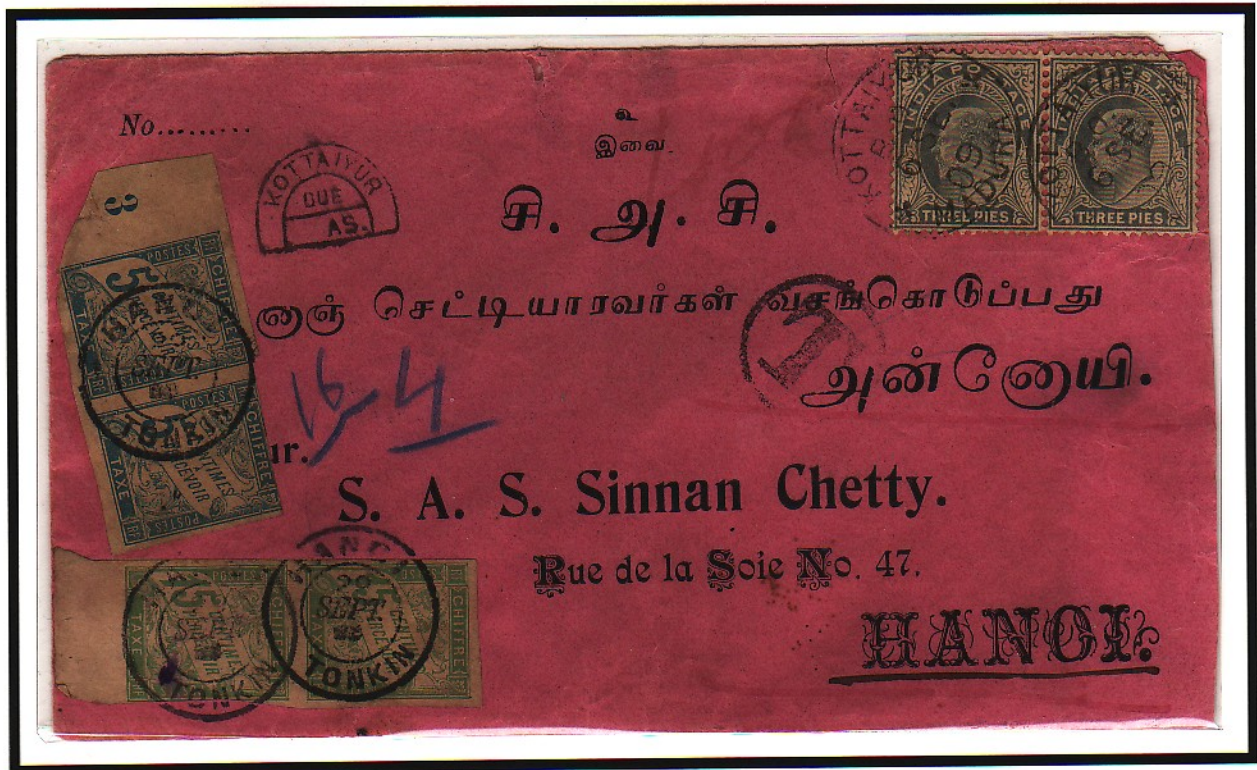

HYDERABAD CITY SING 5 DE. 05

SURAT 7 DE. 05

SAIGON-CENTRAL COCHINCHINE 21 DEC 05

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 5 and 15 centimes

Commercial correspondence sent from India with a total of 6 pies postage was underpaid in 1909. A clerk at the Hanoi post office calculated the postage due amount to be 40 centimes. The amount was specified with a combination of lower values postage due stamps.

POSTAL MARKINGS

KOTTAIYUR MADURA 6 SE 09
"T" in circle
semi-circular KOTTAIYUR DUE _ AS.
HANOI TONKIN 28 SEPT 09

REVERSE

HANOI TONKIN 29 SEPT 09

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 5 and 20 centimes

Members of the Indian international trade community frequently sent correspondence with insufficient postage and even letters with no postage at all. Here the recipient of an unpaid letter had to pay 50 centimes postage due (twice the foreign letter rate).

POSTAL MARKINGS

"T" in circle
semi-circular KOTTAIYUR DUE AS.
HANOI TONKIN 19 MAI 09

REVERSE

KOTTAIYUR MADURA 29 AP. 09
SINGAPORE MY 8 1909
HANOI TONKIN 18 MAI 09

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 10 centimes

Despite having 5 centimes postage on the reverse, an internal postcard sent from Saigon to Hanoi was charged 10 centimes postage due. In this case, the 10-centime Colored Banderole postage due stamp only bears a partial impression from the printing process.

POSTAL MARKINGS
SAIGON-CENTRAL COCHINCHINE 17 AVRIL 05
"T" in triangle
HANOI TONKIN 28 AVRIL 05
REVERSE
SAIGON-CENTRAL COCHINCHINE 17 AVRIL 05

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 10 centimes

Upon arrival, the Saigon post office assessed 10 centimes postage due for a picture postcard sent from France in 1905. Presumably, the charge was levied because the 5-centime French postage stamp had been affixed to the picture side of the card.

POSTAL MARKINGS

CHATEAURENAULT INDRE-ET-LOIRE 22-2 05

"T" in triangle

SAIGON-CENTRAL COCHINCHINE 21 MARS 05

REVERSE

CHATEAURENAULT INDRE-ET-LOIRE 22-2 05

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 10 centimes

An unfranked New Year's postcard, likely posted from France, was charged 20 centimes postage due at Haiphong because the message on the reverse exceeded the five-word limit. Had the message been within the limit, the assessment would have been halved to 10 centimes.

POSTAL MARKINGS

PARIS 11 RD RICHARD-LENOIR 4-1 02

"T" in triangle

HAIPHONG TONKIN 15 SEPT 02

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 15 centimes

The sender had not affixed any postage on an internal letter addressed to Cantho, Cochinchina in 1904. Using a pair of 15-centime postage due stamps, the Cantho post office charged the recipient twice the internal letter rate of 15 centimes.

POSTAL MARKINGS

CANTHO COCHINCHINE 28 OCT 04
plain "T"

REVERSE

CANTHO COCHINCHINE 28 OCT 04

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 20 centimes

In 1906, a sender in Malaya posted his letter to Saigon with a 4-cents postage. The clerk responsible for determining postage due amounts in the Saigon post office calculated the amount due as 20 centimes. To let others know that he had calculated the amount, he wrote his signature ("V2") next to the postage due stamp.

POSTAL MARKINGS

KUALA LUMPUR AU 7 1906

"KT" in triangle

manuscript "V2" due amount verification signature

SAIGON-CENTRAL COCHINCHINE 3 SEPT 06

REVERSE

SAIGON-CENTRAL COCHINCHINE 3 SEPT 06

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 30 centimes

Using a half-anna Indian postal envelope with another ½ anna stamp on the reverse, a sender posted his mailing from Rangoon to Saigon in 1907. The shortfall (15 centimes of 25-centime foreign letter rate) was assessed with 30-centime Colored Banderole postage due stamp.

POSTAL MARKINGS

RANGOON 7 JUL 07

"T" in circle

manuscript "V2" due amount verification signature

SAIGON-CENTRAL COCHINCHINE 28 JUIN 07

REVERSE

RANGOON 7 JUL 07

SINGAPORE JU 19 1907

SAIGON-CENTRAL COCHINCHINE 26 JUIN 07

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 30 centimes

The Indochinese Post Office introduced the Angkor dragon postage dues in 1908. Existing stocks of the Colored Banderole due stamps continued to be used alongside the new issues. Here an incoming foreign letter was charged 50 centimes postage due with a combination of postage due stamps from the two series.

POSTAL MARKINGS

"T" in triangle
CANTHO COCHINCHINE 20 JANV 11

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 50 centimes

It was common practice for international traders in India to leave their commercial correspondence unfranked. Here the Saigon post office determined that a business letter required 50 centimes postage due, twice the 25-centime foreign letter rate.

POSTAL MARKINGS

semi-circular KARAUKUDI DUE _AS.

"T" in triangle

manuscript "V2" due amount verification signature
SAIGON-CENTRAL COCHINCHINE 19 DEC 07

REVERSE

KARAUKUDI 7 DE. 07

SAIGON-CENTRAL COCHINCHINE 19 DEC 07

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 50 centimes

Based on the blue crayon marks, there was some difficulty determining the postage due amount for this incoming foreign letter in 1909. Ultimately, the amount was specified by a 50-centime Colored Banderole postage due stamp which represented twice the foreign letter rate.

POSTAL MARKINGS
COLOMBO OC 30 09
SAIGON COCHINCHINE 11 NOV 09
"T" in rectangle
REVERSE
SAIGON COCHINCHINE 11 NOV 09

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Use of 50 centimes

Presumably, the delivering post office that was the one that was responsible for collecting any postage due from recipients. In this case, an unpaid foreign letter passed through Saigon in 1904, but the postage due stamp was not affixed until the mailing subsequently arrived at Pnompenh.

POSTAL MARKINGS

semi-circular PALLATUR DUE _ AS.

"T" in circle

PNUMPENH CAMBODGE 13 JUIN 04

REVERSE

PALLATUR MADURA 23 MY 09

SAIGON-CENTRAL COCHINCHINE 10 JUIN 04

PNUMPENH CAMBODGE 13 JUIN 04

Colored Banderole Postage Dues
Usage

An assortment of the Colored Banderole postage due stamps was apparently favor-canceled on a hand-back cover in 1894. These denominations were part of the original issue in September 1893.

POSTAL MARKINGS
HAI-PHONG TONKIN 21 JUN 94
"T" in triangle